HEALTH NUGGET

MIGRAINES AND HEADACHES Step one: Bring Relief Hydrotherapy-Relief can be brought to someone suffering from a migraine by having a hot water foot bath for at least half an hour. A cold compress, such as a wet washcloth, can be applied to the forehead and base of the neck. Often blood pooling in the brain is what causes pain. When the feet are placed in hot water, excess blood is drawn to them, and any areas of congestion in the body will be relieved by the blood being directed to the feet. More later!
