We're glad you are here!

Quotes of the Week

"But none of these things move me; nor do I count my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God."

Acts 20:24

"God has had moral heroes, and He has them now,—those who are not ashamed of being His peculiar people. Their wills and plans are all subordinate to the law of God. The love of Jesus has led them not to count their lives dear unto themselves. Their work has been to catch the light from the word of God and to let it shine forth in clear, steady rays to the world. "Fidelity to God" is their motto." —Conflict and Courage, p. 209.

Bible Riddle: They sought to bury him after his demise, Then came Moabites with their war cries, Out of time, they then opened my tomb, To lay him down because there was room, Upon touching my bones he did rise.
Who am I?
