SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

Reach, teach and restore all to truth in love.

Sabbath ends tonight: 8:15 pm ~ Sabbath begins next week: 8:20 pm

The members of the Twin Peaks Seventh-day Adventist Church welcome you. We want you to feel at home while you worship with us, so if we can assist you in any way please don't hesitate to ask. Also, if you don't have any plans after the Worship service, we would like to invite you to join us for food and fellowship downstairs. We look forward to visiting with you and we hope you will come back and join us again soon!

Devices are available for the hearing impaired. Please come to the sound booth to borrow one.

You can access past and live sermons on our You Tube channel.

Livestream: Twin Peaks SDA Church livestreams services and it may be possible that you will appear on camera, either in a live feed or one of the programs that is in our archives.

Prayer requests may be submitted on the Prayer Request Card located in the pew pocket or in the lobby, by email to the church office, using the church website or by calling one of the Elders noted in the bulletin.

For those of you who get cold during the worship hour we do offer a shawl for your use during church. They are in a green basket located at the back of the sanctuary under the Offering Box. After church we ask that you please return the shawl to this basket. Thank you.

From Pastor Tim's Desk

The Scripture for today is: Hebrews 12:14

Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the LORD.

Christ, our Savior, came to earth as a servant and provided the example of what a life of love should be. He is the Prince of Peace. He calls us to live in peace with others, allowing the Holy Spirit to direct our words and deeds, just as He did His. Living in peace does not imply that we should compromise truth in order to get along with someone else. It means that we should always follow the path of truth, honesty, and humility, allowing the peace of God to rule in our hearts so that peace can be communicated in tangible ways to others. As followers of peace we "do not give indulgence to those passions which lead to litigations, strifes, wars." Albert Barnes We surrender our self will so that the will of God can be done both in us and through us. We give up the right to be "right" so that His peace can prevail. We are also directed to live a life of holiness, "That state of continual sanctification, that life of purity and detachment from the world and all its lusts, without which detachment and sanctity no man shall see the Lord - shall never enjoy his presence in the world of blessedness. To see God, in the Hebrew phrase, is to enjoy him; and without holiness of heart and life this is impossible. No soul can be fit for heaven that has not suitable dispositions for the place." Adam Clarke If we are not following after holiness, we are subject to fall into sin of every kind. Jesus said "Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God." Matthew 5:8 To see the Lord is not only something we look for in the future, it is to realize His presence with us now. Only those who are holy appreciate the holiness of God, they are the ones who will abide in His presence.
