SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

Reach, teach and restore all to truth in love.

Sabbath ends tonight: 8:20 pm ~ Sabbath begins next week: 8:25 pm

The members of the Twin Peaks Seventh-day Adventist Church welcome you. We want you to feel at home while you worship with us, so if we can assist you in any way please don't hesitate to ask. Also, if you don't have any plans after the Worship service, we would like to invite you to join us for food and fellowship downstairs. We look forward to visiting with you and we hope you will come back and join us again soon!

Devices are available for the hearing impaired. Please come to the sound booth to borrow one.

You can access past and live sermons on our You Tube channel.

Livestream: Twin Peaks SDA Church livestreams services and it may be possible that you will appear on camera, either in a live feed or one of the programs that is in our archives.

Prayer requests may be submitted on the Prayer Request Card located in the pew pocket or in the lobby, by email to the church office, using the church website or by calling one of the Elders noted in the bulletin.

For those of you who get cold during the worship hour we do offer a shawl for your use during church. They are in a green basket located at the back of the sanctuary under the Offering Box. After church we ask that you please return the shawl to this basket. Thank you.

Pastor's Prayer Focus 9-noon

Prayer Meeting 6:30-7:30 pm

From Pastor Tim's Desk

The Scripture for today is: Acts 11:9

But the voice answered me again from heaven. What God has cleansed you must not call common.

In our text for today, Peter is recounting His vision of unclean animals to be eaten descending down from heaven in a large sheet. Peter, being raised a Jew, did not eat those kind of animals. In fact, he responded that nothing "common or unclean" had ever entered his mouth. Peter was perplexed about this and wondered what it meant. Unfortunately today, many Bible teachers are teaching that, through Peter's vision, God was proclaiming that all kinds of animals can now be eaten, even the ones that He specifically said should never be eaten. Was that what God was trying to convey to Peter? Peter is a New Testament apostle. He walked, ministered and lived with the Savior for three and a half years. After Jesus ascended back into heaven, Peter stood on the Day of Pentecost and delivered a powerful message to the crowds assembled there. Thousands were converted and came to Christ. Yet Peter still refused to eat unclean meat. He was convicted by the Word and refused to move from the instructions of scripture. God, however, was using the example of unclean animals to get at a much larger issue with Peter. It was not animals that God wanted Peter to accept, it was people. Peter, and all of the Jews, considered the gentiles unclean and excluded from the covenant of God. God used unclean animals to represent all of the people of the world that Peter considered common or unclean. Afterward, Peter entered the house of Cornelius, a Roman centurion, "And he said unto them, You know that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God has showed me that I should not call any man common or unclean." Acts 10:28 "Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: But in every nation he that fears Him, and works righteousness, is accepted with Him." Acts 10:34-35 The focus of Peter's vision was not about eating unclean meats. It had to do with breaking down the wall of prejudice so that the gospel could go into all the world. Food that was unclean before the cross was just as unclean after the cross. Jesus did not die to cleanse animals; He died to redeem mankind from sin. No pigs were cleansed at Calvary; unclean animals are still unclean today. But the gospel of Jesus Christ is extended to all nations, races and people groups. All can be saved by the blood of Christ.
