From Pastor Tim's Desk

The Scripture for today is: Luke 6:41

And behold you the speck that is in your brother's eye, but perceive not the beam that is in your own eye?

In 2 Samuel chapter 12, Nathan the prophet confronted king David after David had committed adultery with Bathsheba and had her husband, Uriah the Hittite, killed. David's behavior was so vile and unbecoming that it is hard to imagine that it could have come from this man who had been so mightily used of God and who had been impeccable in his stand of faith in God. "And the LORD sent Nathan unto David. And he came unto him, and said unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor. The rich man had a great many flocks and herds: But the poor man had nothing, except one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own food, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter. And there came a traveler unto the rich man, and he refused to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to prepare for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and prepared it for the man that was come to him. And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the LORD lives, the man that has done this thing shall surely die: And he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity. And Nathan said to David, You are the man." 2 Samuel 12:1-7 David was quick to pass judgment upon someone whom he thought had unjustly and without mercy taken a lamb from a poor man, but he was at that moment blind to the fact that he had unjustly and without mercy taken another man's wife and had him killed him in the process. We, like David, have the propensity to condemn others for their wrong behaviors while ignoring or excusing worse behavior in ourselves. As we esteem others more than ourselves we find that the love of Christ flows from us and, out of the reservoir of His eternal love, the body of Christ is built up.
