From Pastor Tim’s Desk

The scripture for today: Proverbs 1:5

A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels.

Keeping God's Word before us and following the truth which we have received indicates that we have embraced the understanding that His Word imparts. Those who hear but do not understand the value of His instructions are no better off than those who do not listen to Him at all. Both have, in practical application, rejected what was given; neither will show any spiritual increase from the instructions. "They who have wisdom understand the worth of knowledge, and earnestly seek it; but fools despise all instruction." Family Bible Notes Too often the hearers will listen to God's instructions and conclude that these do not apply to them. But those who hear and follow the instructions and counsels of God through His Word are people of understanding and wisdom. Through love and obedience they increase in spiritual prosperity. "Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning." Proverbs 9:9 It is the wise who realize their need for wisdom while the foolish, through vain rationalizations, conclude that they can manage life and it's challenges without the direction of the Lord. Through Christ we receive the divine instructions we need to live an abundant overcoming life. Whose voice are we listening to? There are only two spiritual sources; Christ our Lord and Savior or Satan, the father of lies. With every decision we make, we will follow the voice of one or the other. If we reject the instructions that God has given in His Word we will have listened to the voice of Satan. It is a far wiser choice to hear and receive God's Instruction, wisdom and counsel. It is far better to let love for Him direct our thoughts, decisions and behaviors. All of His attributes flow from His love. And wisdom, which God provides, directs us to seek those attributes.
