The scripture for today: John 14:20

At that day you shall know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

What good news Jesus imparts to His followers! He told them, "If you love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you forever; Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it sees Him not, neither knows Him: but you know Him; for He dwells with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you." John 14:15-18 Jesus was preparing to pay the ultimate price for the salvation of mankind; His death on the cross. Yet, He told them that the day was coming when they would know that He was in the Father and they would be in Him and He would be in them. How could that be? The day that Jesus was referring to was the day when the Holy Spirit would be poured out upon them, filling them with His very presence. Spiritual power from heaven was promised. This was not a promise just for the few disciples who were listening to the words Jesus was speaking. It was a promise to every follower of Christ. Through the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit, Christ lives in the heart of everyone who is truly His. And because we have died with Him, our old life of sin no longer controls us; we have surrendered to the control of Christ. He now lives in our hearts. The reality of His presence is evidenced by the new life that we live. He expresses Himself through us and we live through Him. The dominion that was lost through Adam's transgression has been restored back to us through the last Adam, Jesus Christ. Like the disciples of old, we know that Christ is in the Father and we are in Him and He is in us. We know it by the presence of His Holy Spirit who lives in our hearts and directs our lives. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God's love powerfully manifested through the lives of His people.
