The scripture for today: Psalm 46:1

We have a refuge, a place where we can always find help. God is that place and in Him we are secure. He is our strength and in Him we find new victories every day. As we look to God for wisdom and guidance, we become overcomers. As we learn to overcome the small tests and trials, we are strengthened for the larger ones. Our strength is not in our natural selves, our strength is our faith in God and the concomitant joy that faith produces in us. "Every teacher of the truth, every laborer together with God, will pass through searching, trying hours, when faith and patience will be severely tested. You are to be prepared by the grace of Christ to go forward, although apparent impossibilities obstruct the way. You have a present help in every time of emergency. The Lord allows you to meet obstacles that you may seek unto Him who is your strength and sufficiency. Pray most earnestly for the wisdom that comes from God; He will open the way before you, and give you precious victories if you will walk humbly before Him." Ellen White, Evangelism, p. 306 "God is our strength… We must learn to stand alone and depend wholly upon God. The sooner we learn this the better." Ellen White, Early Writings, p. 105 New challenges may arise and new trials may present themselves but God is greater than anything that we might confront; He is much greater! He is with us and temptations and trials do not drive Him away. He is a "very present help in trouble." He never lets go of the one who does not let go of Him. Trust Him today; He will see you through.
