FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: February 11, 2026

A Message of Comfort and Sympathy to Tumbler Ridge

The Seventh-day Adventist Church in British Columbia and Yukon extends deep sympathy to the entire Tumbler Ridge community following the tragic events of February 10. We continue to pray for all who are grieving, for those who have been injured, and for the first responders and caregivers who are serving with courage and compassion.

The local Seventh-day Adventist Church is working alongside local authorities and community partners to make the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Tumbler Ridge available as a supportive trauma-counselling centre for the community. This space will offer a compassionate environment where individuals can receive listening support, prayer if desired, and connection to appropriate community and mental-health resources according to their needs. These services will be available to all at no cost, regardless of faith background.
