

FAITHFUL STEWARDSHIP

July – December

“...For all things come from You, And of Your own we have given You.”

(1 Chronicles 29:14, NKJV)

A Journey of Faithful Stewardship July – December 2026

Each Sabbath, we have the privilege of worshiping God through tithes and offerings. This booklet provides weekly readings designed to help every congregation create a clear, intentional, and meaningful moment of worship centered on biblical stewardship. The purpose of these readings is simple: to lead our members into a deeper understanding of why we return tithe, why we give offerings, and how our generosity advances the mission of the church. We encourage every church to:

Take dedicated time each Sabbath to highlight the importance of tithing and offering.

Use the provided reading for that week during the worship service before collecting the offering.

Teach and uplift God's call to faithful stewardship, helping members grow in trust, gratitude, and partnership in mission.

Share how offerings are used; both within the local church and across the Washington Conference; to support ministries that change lives.

As we continue with quarters 3 and 4 of 2026, may these readings help us cultivate a spirit of worship, generosity, and joyful obedience. Thank you for leading your congregation in honoring God through faithful stewardship.

World Budget

Returning God's tithe is an expression of our trust in God's faithfulness and our commitment to His mission. Through the prophet Malachi, God invites His people, "Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in My house" (Malachi 3:10, NKJV). Returning tithe is more than a financial responsibility—it is an act of worship that acknowledges God as the Provider of every blessing. As we faithfully return what belongs to Him, we become partners in His work and demonstrate our confidence that He will continue to provide for His people.

Through your tithe, you participate in the mission of the Washington Conference. Your faithfulness supports pastors, evangelistic outreach, discipleship, leadership development, and ministries that proclaim the everlasting gospel throughout Western Washington. Every returned tithe strengthens local churches and helps bring the hope of Jesus to communities across our Conference.

After faithfully returning God's tithe, we also have the privilege of supporting the ministry of our local church through our offerings. Offerings given to the Local Church Budget sustain the weekly ministry of this congregation by supporting worship services, children's and youth ministries, Bible studies, community outreach, and the care of our church facilities. These gifts help our church remain active, welcoming, and engaged in mission.

Today's loose offering will support the World Budget of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, helping share the everlasting gospel through worldwide mission, education, healthcare, and evangelistic outreach.

Thank you for returning tithe and giving generously. You may give today through the Adventist Giving app or with the tithe envelopes provided by the church.

Local Church Budget

Returning God's tithe is a weekly reminder that everything belongs to God. Scripture declares, "The earth is the Lord's, and all its fullness, the world and those who dwell therein" (Psalm 24:1, NKJV). Every blessing we enjoy comes from His gracious hand, and when we faithfully return His tithe, we acknowledge Him as the Owner of all we have. This act of worship keeps our hearts focused on God's faithfulness and reminds us that our greatest security is found not in what we possess, but in the One who faithfully provides.

Through your tithe, you participate in the mission of the Washington Conference. Your faithfulness supports pastors, evangelistic outreach, discipleship, leadership development, and ministries that proclaim the everlasting gospel throughout Western Washington. Every returned tithe strengthens local churches and helps bring the hope of Jesus to communities across our Conference.

After faithfully returning God's tithe, we also have the privilege of supporting the ministry of our local church through our offerings. Offerings given to the Local Church Budget sustain the weekly ministry of this congregation by supporting worship services, children's and youth ministries, Bible studies, community outreach, and the care of our church facilities. Sunset Lake Camp

Jesus invites us to invest in what will last forever. Scripture reminds us, “Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth... but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven” (Matthew 6:19–20, NKJV). Stewardship is more than managing what God has entrusted to us—it is choosing eternal priorities over temporary possessions. Every time we faithfully return God’s tithe, we declare that His kingdom matters more than our own, trusting that He will use our faithfulness to accomplish far more than we could ever accomplish alone.

Through your tithe, you participate in the broader mission of the Washington Conference. Your faithfulness supports pastors, evangelistic outreach, discipleship, and leadership development across Western Washington. Tithes strengthen churches, equip ministry leaders, and help bring the gospel to communities throughout our region.

In addition to returning tithes, God also invites us to faithfully support the ministry of our local church through our offerings. Offerings to the Local Church Budget sustain the weekly ministry of this congregation by supporting worship services, children’s and youth programs, Bible study groups, community outreach, and the care of our church facilities. These gifts help our church remain active, welcoming, and engaged in mission.

Today’s loose offering supports Sunset Lake Camp. Through camps and retreat ministries, children, youth, and families experience Christ in a unique way, building friendships, strengthening their faith, and making decisions that can impact eternity.

Thank you for returning tithes and giving generously. You may give today through the Adventist Giving app or with the tithe envelopes provided by the church.

Faithful stewardship is one of the clearest expressions of our trust in God. Scripture reminds us, “There is one who scatters, yet increases more... The generous soul will be made rich, and he who waters will also be watered himself” (Proverbs 11:24–25, NKJV). God’s promises often challenge the way the world thinks. While the world encourages us to hold tightly to what we have, God invites us to trust Him with what He has already entrusted to us. Returning tithe is an act of faith that reminds us God is our Provider, and that we can always depend on His care.

Through your tithe, you participate in the broader mission of the Washington Conference. Your faithfulness supports pastors, evangelistic outreach, discipleship, and leadership development across Western Washington. Christian Record Services

God blesses us so that we may become a blessing to others. Scripture reminds us, “And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:19, NKJV). Because God faithfully provides for us, we can faithfully return His tithe with confidence and trust. Stewardship is more than recognizing God’s blessings—it is allowing those blessings to become a source of hope and encouragement in the lives of others. As we honor God with our resources, He uses them to accomplish His work in ways we may never fully see.

Through your tithe, you participate in the broader mission of the Washington Conference. Your faithfulness supports pastors, evangelistic outreach, discipleship, and leadership development across Western Washington. God often prepares us for greater responsibilities through faithfulness in the little things. Jesus said, “He who is faithful in what is least is faithful also in much” (Luke 16:10, NKJV). Returning God’s tithe is one of the simplest yet most meaningful ways we demonstrate our faithfulness to Him. Week after week, this act of worship reminds us that stewardship is not measured by the amount we give, but by our willingness to faithfully honor God with all He has entrusted to our care.

Washington Youth: Education

One of the greatest investments we can make is in the lives of others. Scripture reminds us, “Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it” (Proverbs 22:6, NKJV). God has entrusted His church with the privilege of nurturing the next generation to know Him, love His Word, and faithfully serve others. Returning God’s tithe is one way we support His work, while stewardship reminds us that every gift given in faith can help shape lives for eternity.

God designed His church to be a place where believers worship, serve, and grow together. Scripture reminds us, “Now therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God” (Ephesians 2:19, NKJV). Returning God’s tithe is one of the ways we faithfully support the work He is accomplishing through His Church. Stewardship reminds us that when each of us is faithful, the entire church family is strengthened to carry out God’s mission.

Faithful stewardship begins with a heart of gratitude. Scripture reminds us, “Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights” (James 1:17, NKJV). Everything we have—our time, our abilities, our resources, and every blessing we enjoy—comes from God. Returning His tithe is our opportunity to acknowledge His goodness and thank Him for His continued faithfulness. Stewardship is not simply about giving; it is our joyful response to a God who has already given us so much.

Faithful stewardship reminds us that God's family extends far beyond the walls of our local church. Scripture tells us, "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations..." (Matthew 28:19, NKJV). From the beginning, God's desire has been for every person to know Him. When we faithfully return His tithe, we become part of that mission, supporting the work of sharing the everlasting gospel with people across our Conference and around the world. Returning His tithe is one expression of that daily commitment, reminding us that our lives and our resources belong to Him.

One of God's greatest desires is for His people to grow in wisdom and in the knowledge of Him. Scripture reminds us, "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, And the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding" (Proverbs 9:10, NKJV). Christian education is more than the pursuit of knowledge—it is the intentional development of hearts and minds centered on Christ. As we faithfully return God's tithe, we support His work of preparing individuals to serve with faith, integrity, and purpose. Returning God’s tithe is one of the ways we acknowledge Him as the Giver of every blessing. This act of worship places God first and reminds us that all we have belongs to Him. God calls us to reflect His love through acts of compassion. Jesus said, “Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me” (Matthew 25:40, NKJV). Throughout His ministry, Christ met both the physical and spiritual needs of those around Him. As His followers, we are called to do the same. Returning God’s tithe is an expression of our faithfulness to God, while our offerings help extend His love and care to those who need it most. Stewardship reminds us that every act of generosity becomes an opportunity to share the compassion of Christ.

Through your tithe, you support the mission of the Washington Conference. Your faithfulness helps provide pastoral leadership, evangelistic outreach, discipleship, and leadership development throughout Western Washington. Together, we are strengthening local churches, equipping ministry leaders, and sharing the hope of Jesus with communities across our region.

After returning God’s tithe, we also have the privilege of supporting the ministry of our local church through our offerings. Offerings to the Local Church Budget make it possible for this congregation to provide meaningful worship services, children’s and youth ministries, Bible study groups, community outreach, and the care of our church facilities. Through these gifts, our church remains active, welcoming, and engaged in sharing the love of Christ.

Today’s loose offering supports Adventist Community Services, helping provide practical assistance, disaster relief, food assistance, and community outreach that reflects Christ’s compassion and brings hope to those in need.

Thank you for returning tithe and giving generously. You may give today through the Adventist Giving app or with the tithe envelopes provided by the church.

Local Church Budget

As another year draws to a close, we have countless reasons to thank God for His faithfulness. Scripture reminds us, “Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful” (Hebrews 10:23, NKJV). Throughout every season, God has provided for our needs, guided our steps, and remained true to His promises. Returning God’s tithe is one way we acknowledge His continued blessings and respond with hearts of gratitude. Every act of faithfulness reminds us that we serve a God who has always been faithful to His people.

Washington Youth: Children

As we come to the close of another year, we are reminded that God's faithfulness extends from one generation to the next. Scripture reminds us, "One generation shall praise Your works to another, And shall declare Your mighty acts" (Psalm 145:4, NKJV). As we reflect on God's blessings throughout the past year, we also look ahead with hope, recognizing the privilege of passing our faith on to those who will follow us. Returning God's tithe is one way we honor His faithfulness, while stewardship reminds us that every investment we make in the spiritual lives of children helps strengthen the future of His Church.
