Thanksgiving Food Baskets will be packed Nov. 22 at 9 a.m. and we still need general items like canned fruit, canned vegetables, soups, boxed meals, canned pumpkin, and cranberry sauce. If you know a family in need of a food basket, request forms are on the reception desk. These need to be turned in no later than Nov. 21. Your generous help is always appreciated.

Clark County Adventist Community Services thanks all who help support our clients at Adventist Community Services. We are currently running low on some food items and requesting donations if you're able to contribute. The items needed most are canned fruit, pasta (shells, elbows and egg noodles), olives, pickles, mayonnaise, catsup, jam or jelly, shelf stable milk, cereal and cat food. We're also in need of blankets, winter coats, hats, gloves, and jeans. There are two labeled bins in the Lost and Found closet for CCACS donations. Thank you in advance for anyway you can help.
