ANNOUNCEMENTS TODAY

1. OPEN HOUSE TODAY: In the Youth Chapel at 11 am.
2. OFFERING TODAY is for Religious Liberty (NAD).

For more than 150 years, Seventh-day Adventists have stood firmly for religious liberty—for everyone. This commitment was born in our early history, when Sunday laws led to Adventist pastors, workers, and even Willie White being arrested for following their conscience.

Yet our defense of religious freedom goes deeper than history. We stand for liberty because it reflects the character of God—a God who created us with freedom of choice and desires only loving, voluntary service.

Today, we invite you to support this vital ministry, which protects freedom of conscience and enables the church to continue its mission. In uncertain times, your prayers and support are needed more than ever.

NEXT WEEK’S OFFERING is for Local Church Budget.

NEXT WEEK

11. BLESSED BY:

Blessed by Dona Klein's music CD "Nearing Home"

My husband's anniversary was a Christmas time, and I was very depressed and her music cheered me up with the Blessed Hope. Music always reminds us of a happy future in our Heavenly home.

Betty

Blessed by the youth of our church

This last Sabbath was our regular potluck, but something happened that made it different. I knew that we would have some of the young people come and help clean up. I was amazed at how many young people from several church families came. They jumped right in and got the job done. For the first time in MANY YEARS the kitchen team was able to leave early. You young people made my day!

Barbara Roth

Blessed by Dr. J

Because of his encouragement and heartfelt guidance, my life is richer. I appreciate his diligent care and my family prays for him every day.

Cinnia Easley
