10. BLESSED BY:

Answer to prayer

Sunday March 1st Mike went to a Clipper's game at the Intuit Dome in L.A. While he was gone, I studied Romans 4:1-11. I was to lead the Bible study class on Thursday. Rejoice in trials, they strengthen faith, hope, patience and character.

Monday morning, Mike said "I have to go to work, but can you call the Dome (that holds 18,000 people), I lost my phone!"

After trying the number several times and being put on hold, I realized the system was not working.

I then started calling venues that sold tickets to see if they had a Dome contact number. More holding time.

Finally, I said I am going to call anything non-descript that said "Clippers" or "Dome". I got Clippers Hair Salon in New Mexico and Dome Dentistry in Texas. Finally, I contacted a man in San Francisco. He said, "This happens all the time, so I know the lost & found number."

I got through! Describe your phone. Black with black case. I was put on a long hold again. NO, it hadn't been turned in, file a claim. I wasn't able to get to the form. I left text message. Another call to get assistance with form and 20 minutes of help to no avail.

I never doubted I would find the phone. My faith and hope were strong. I prayed Lord you know where the phone is, help me find it. CALL IT! So, I did. A man from the same department that told me it hadn't been turned in answered it. He said obviously I have it but you must prove it. Just then Mike walked in for lunch and said, "Push the button, it is a photo of my wife."

Three hours later and much persistence and hold time, the miracles were:

- 1) Mike remembered where he left it.
- 2) A man in San Francisco makes it a point to find the lost & found number so he could help those in this same situation.
- 3) That God impressed someone to answer the phone.
- 4) That Mike came home for lunch just as I needed a way to prove the phone was ours.
- 5) And that at 4:00 in the afternoon we had no traffic from Yucaipa to L.A.

If I would have prayed first and gotten an immediate answer than I wouldn't have had my patience and character strengthened. So, I was prepared when our son lost his phone on a cruise. Just pray and believe God answers prayer! And his phone was also turned in. God is Good!
